SIX PROHIBITION MEETINGS HERE, FEB. 28, MAR. 1, 2

FLYING SQUADRON OF EMERICA COMING WITH NOTED SPEAKERS AND MUSICIANS—NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN.

Six meetings in three days will be held in Daytona by the Flying Squadron of America, the famous organization of temperance speakers and musicians, which in this winter visiting 250 principal cities of the United States in the interest of national constitutional prohibition of the liquor traffic.

The meetings here will be held on February 28th and March 1st and 2nd. The meetings on Sunday, February 28th, will be at the New Daytona theater at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m., and on March 1st and 2nd will be at the hotel stand at 2:00 and 8:00 p. m.

The plan of the Flying Squadron is unique in the history of the United States. It is headed by former Governor J. Frank Hanly, of Indiana, one of the most powerful prohibition speakers in the United States. It is organized in three groups, each group complete within itself. The first group will conduct the meetings of the first day, and pass on to the next city, its place being taken by the second and third groups in succession. In addition to speakers of national reputation, each group has with it musicians of ability.

NO STAMPS ARE NEEDED SAYS LEWIS

462 PERSONS ARE QUALIFIED TO VOTE

ALL PETITIONS TO HAVE NAMES PLACED ON OFFICIAL BALLOT FILED WITH CITY CLERK LAST EVENING.

The revised registration list for the municipal election to be held February 10th has been compiled by Supervisor of Registration J. R. Wetherell and was received by City Clerk A. McF. Porter yesterday. The list shows 462 persons qualified to vote.

The last petitions to have names placed on the official ballot were filed yesterday afternoon and candidates appeared for every office except that of assessor, now held by Otto H. Wehner.

The complete list of candidates follows:

Mayor—Henry T. Titus and Joseph Osborne.

Councilmen—Chris Gourlerly, H. C. Burdick, E. T. Conrad, C. A. Ballough and J. S. Walker.

Collector and Clerk—A. McF. Porter.

Treasurer—F. N. Conrad.

Somebody chucked a bombshell into the candidate camp by reading somewhere that revenue stamps were required on petitions to the extent of ten cents' worth to each sheet. Of course 25 names, the number required to get a name on the official ballot of Daytona, requires but one sheet. Joe Osborne started his petition by contributing ten cents toward the coffers of Uncle Sam. Other candidates thought perhaps there might be something in this stamp talk, as all but two of the candidates cancelled 10 cents' worth of stamps and placed them on the respective petitions. But the money was a nice sort of philanthropy to ward Uncle Samuel, so says Hayes Lewis, the collector of internal revenue for the district of Florida, who holds that stamps are not required on petitions to have names placed on the official ballot. All who looked for this provision of the law were unable to find it, and Hayes Lewis today told the Daily News by wire that there is nothing to the war stamp talk.

WAITE SUBMITS GOOD ADVERTISING SCHEME

FLORIDA EAST COAST RY. MAY BE ASKED FOR PERMISSION TO PRESENT THROUGH PASSENGERS WITH "BOOSTERS."

Perhaps the most valuable suggestion voiced at Friday evening's meeting of the Daytona board of trade was offered by L. M. Waite. A few days ago a guest at Mr. Waite's hotel, the Desplund, directed his attention to an advertising scheme now being effectively used by the city of Savannah. Instantly the alert Waite became interested, and after investigating the scheme determined to recommend it to the Daytona board of trade as a good one to adopt.

The plan Savannah is using is simple, consisting merely of a bunch of tickets and a large envelope containing a number of post card views of the city, descriptive matter of its attractions, and a most cordial invitation to tourists to stop there and see the town before returning home. A man at the Savannah terminal station distributes the flowers and envelopes among the passengers who pass through on trains. Secretary Beaton was instructed to communicate with the F. E. C. railway officials and ascertain whether or not the same thing might not be done for this place under the auspices of the board of trade.

A MIGHTY CONSOLATION

Written Especially for the Daily News

By DR. CHARLES FREDERIC GOSS

Author "Redemption of David Corson"

"I'm too full for utterance," exclaimed the Winter Visitor, when we met upon the corner.

I asked him what the matter was. His eyes were twinkling when he resumed.

"I have had an adventure."

"You always do," I replied, and urged him to tell me all about it.

"I was walking along with my ears wide open—not in curiosity but in interest—you understand?" he replied, "when I caught the following broken fragment of a conversation between a man who was painfully dragging himself along by the aid of a cane and a bull-necked sort of a person who had overtaken him and asked him, 'What's the trouble, Mr. Man?'

"'I've had a stroke,' he said.

"'Worked too hard, I 'spose! Had to have it, to stop you! Do you good! Nobody will ever stop of his own accord. Nature simply has to knock him down, to make him quit. If she hadn't you, you'd have gone on forever and forever. Some other fellow needed your place, I reckon, and you wouldn't give it up. Therefore you had to be yanked out of the procession and laid aside by violence; ought to have had sense enough to quit when you had your warning, first.'

"'God!' exclaimed the poor cripple, and paused to survey the propounder of this mighty consolation, with an astonishment too great for anger, even.

"I wish I had had the courage to stop and listen to his reply, when finally it came," the W. V. remarked, "but it would have looked impertinent, of course."

"What did you think of that philosophy," I inquired, and he replied:

"It seemed a little violent (like pulling a tooth to stop its aching), but when you have to think it out to the end, it's full of a quaint horse-sense. He hit the nail on the head when he said that men won't stop until they have to do it. I wouldn't, and neither, I venture to say, would you! I went recklessly past about one hundred danger signals and, finally, Nature had to lay a log across my track to ditch me. If it was meant for us to live forever, this violent way of knocking us down would seem unreasonable, but as long as we know that we have got to stop, sometime, and will not do it of our own accord, our old stepmother has to be a little rough. She carries a lot of cunning weapons up her sleeve—paralysis for this one; gout for that; heart trouble, or blindness, or asthma, or senility, for the other. The old lady has no scruples about such a carrying of concealed weapons, or using them either—pistols, dirks, sandbags, or a slung shot! All of them look alike, to her! Anything that will make a man give up his place to the man she has prepared to fill it, will answer well enough. His only business is to quit as gracefully as he can and use his enforced leisure to get ready for that other sphere of life, into which she plans to lead him. A crude philosophy, but practical after all."

PROMOTERS OF BRICK ROAD IDEA GRATIFIED WITH ITS RECEPTION

REVISED PROPOSITION LOOKS TO CREATION OF NEW DISTRICT AND ISSUANCE OF $350,000 BONDS.

The revised proposition to issue bonds in the total sum of $350,000, to be passed upon early in April by the voters of Daytona district and a portion of New Smyrna district, contemplates the building of a brick, concrete, or macadam road from Rose Bay to the north line of Volusia county. The said road is to be nine feet in width exclusive of the parts on either side which are already hard-surfaced with shells, except within [illegible] na districts, and which is traversed by a mile and a half of the DeLand road.

In order that there may be no question about the cost of the proposed roads and that every voter may know exactly where they are to be built, the contract for the work will be awarded prior to the election. Promoters of the project, prominent among whom are T. P. Williams and Edward F. Oates, anticipate that the bonds will be sold, or that a tentative contract will be made for their sale, before the election.

At this time there seems to be little doubt that the proposition will be ratified by a majority of the voters and property owners affected. A number of heavy tax payers—men who have watched the expenditure of public money for road purposes—have expressed their hearty approval of the project, at the same time referring to the fact, or alleged fact, that the present unsatisfactory roads through the territory described are costing more per annum than the interest on $350,000 of six per cent.

A MIGHTY CONSOLATION

Written Especially for the Daily News

By DR. CHARLES FREDERIC GOSS

Author "Redemption of David Corson"

"I'm too full for utterance," exclaimed the Winter Visitor, when we met upon the corner.

I asked him what the matter was. His eyes were twinkling when he resumed.

"I have had an adventure."

"You always do," I replied, and urged him to tell me all about it.

"I was walking along with my ears wide open—not in curiosity but in interest—you understand?" he replied, "when I caught the following broken fragment of a conversation between a man who was painfully dragging himself along by the aid of a cane and a bull-necked sort of a person who had overtaken him and asked him, 'What's the trouble, Mr. Man?'

"'I've had a stroke,' he said.

"'Worked too hard, I 'spose! Had to have it, to stop you! Do you good! Nobody will ever stop of his own accord. Nature simply has to knock him down, to make him quit. If she hadn't you, you'd have gone on forever and forever. Some other fellow needed your place, I reckon, and you wouldn't give it up. Therefore you had to be yanked out of the procession and laid aside by violence; ought to have had sense enough to quit when you had your warning, first."

"'Gad!' exclaimed the poor cripple, and paused to survey the propounder of this mighty consolation, with an astonishment too great for anger, even.

"I wish I had had the courage to stop and listen to his reply, when finally it came," the W. V. remarked, "but it would have looked impertinent, of course."

"What did you think of that philosophy," I inquired, and he replied:

"It seemed a little violent (like pulling a tooth to stop its aching), but when you have to think it out to the end, it's full of a quaint horse-sense. He hit the nail on the head when he said that men won't stop until they have to do it. I wouldn't, and neither, I venture to say, would you! I went recklessly past about one hundred danger signals and, finally, Nature had to lay a log across my track to ditch me. If it was meant for us to live forever, this violent way of knocking us down would seem unreasonable, but as long as we know that we have got to stop, sometime, and will not do it of our own accord, our old stepmother has to be a little rough. She carries a lot of cunning weapons up her sleeve—paralysis for this one; gout for that; heart trouble, or blindness, or asthma, or senility, for the other. The old lady has no scruples about such a carrying of concealed weapons, or using them either—pistols, dirks, sandbags, or a slung shot! All of them look alike, to her! Anything that will make a man give up his place to the man she has prepared to fill it, will answer well enough. His only business is to quit as gracefully as he can and use his enforced leisure to get ready for that other sphere of life, into which she plans to lead him. A crude philisophy, but practical after all."

PROMOTERS OF BRICK ROAD IDEA GRATIFIED WITH ITS RECEPTION

REVISED PROPOSITION LOOKS TO CREATION OF NEW DISTRICT AND ISSUANCE OF $350,000 BONDS.

The revised proposition to issue bonds in the total sum of $350,000, to be passed upon early in April by the voters of Daytona district and a portion of New Smyrna district, contemplates the building of a brick, concrete, or macadam road from Rose Bay to the north line of Volusia county. The said road is to be nine feet in width (exclusive of the parts on either side which are already hard-surfaced with shell), except within na district), and which is traversed by a mile and a half of the DeLand road.

In order that there may be no question about the cost of the proposed roads and that every voter may know exactly where they are to be built, the contract for the work will be awarded prior to the election. Promoters of the project, prominent among whom are T. F. Williams and Edward F. Oates, anticipate that the bonds will be sold, or that a tentative contract will be made for their sale, before the election.

At this time there seems to be little doubt that the proposition will be ratified by a majority of the voters and property owners affected. A number of heavy tax payers—men who have watched the expenditure of public money for road purposes—have expressed their hearty approval of the project, at the same time referring to the fact, or alleged fact, that the present unsatisfactory roads through the territory described are costing more per annum than the interest on $350,000 of six per cent

GUEST NIGHT AT SANS SOUCI CLUB

PENINSULA CLUB DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED AT THE WELL APPOINTED HOME OF MR. AND MRS. R. S. HOLMES.

A very delightful program and entertainment was given Thursday evening at the well appointed home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holmes on Halifax avenue, when at the annual open meeting the husbands and friends of club members were invited to be present.

Japanese decorations were used very effectively in the large reception room at the Holmes residence. The guests were met at the door and ushered in by two dainty little maidens, clad in Japanese robes. They were Miss Catherine Waterson and Adele Towne. The Wilson orchestra opened the program and Mr. Waterson sang two vocal solos. Mr. Holmes then entertained the company for sometime with fine steriopticon views of tea and rice growing in Japan; choice bits of scenery from this wonderful island was also thrown upon the canvas. Most of the pictures exhibited were photographs taken by Mr. and Mrs. Holmes in their travels through Japan.

Following the stereopticon views, Mrs. Smith Young gave a highly interesting talk on rice cultivatcn in Japan. Mrs. Mitchell drew a graphic pen-picture of Tokio. Both of these talks were greatly enjoyed by members and visitors, and in fact the entire program was a beautiful success.

At the close of the program appropriate refreshments, such as rice cakes, chop suey and tea were served in Japan style to the delectation of all present.

After a short intermission for social visiting, the company dispersed in the firm conviction that Mr. and Mrs. Holmes could not be excelled as genial host and hostess, and that the annual open meeting was an event to which club members may look forward with much pleasure each year.

SEABREEZE AND DAYTONA BEACH

Grady Coleman and his father arrived here Monday, making the trip from Moultrie, Ga., in their Ford car, and are spending the week with G. C. Odum and other relatives. They will leave next week for the interior on a camping trip, and hope to enjoy some good shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Olds , of Michigan, have recently located in an apartment at the winter home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wells, on the corner of Earl street and Peninsula drive. Mr. and Mrs. Olds were here two years ago and spent the winter at the home of C. B. Poor.

TOURISTS' BIBLE CLASS, SEABREEZE AVE. CHURCH

This class meets at 10 a. m. every Sunday in the East Annex of the church.

After the regular lesson tomorrow, the class will be addressed by Dr. Charles Frederick Goss, of Cincinnati.

All are cordially invited to come.

Miss Ella Warren, of Chicago, Ill., has taken rooms at the Poor home. Miss Warren is greatly interested in birds and has discovered a new species since her arrival.

LADIES' AID OF TOURIST CHURCH MET AT THE GENEVA

Inspite of the inclement afternoon, the ladies' aid meeting of the Tourist church was well attended and proved unusually pleasant for the members and visitors present. At a short business session it was decided to have the Tourist church wired and fixtures installed for electric lighting. A very generous donation of $10 was made by a guest of the Geneva toward the work. The musical program included two vocal solos by Miss Peirson: "Four Leaf Clover" and "The Little Dutch Garden." Several instrumental selections by Mrs. Abell, winter resident of North Halifax avenue, and vocal selections by noted singers on the new Victrola, recently purchased by Mrs. Stengle for the enjoyment of the guests of the Geneva, all of which was greatly enjoyed by the company. At the invitation of the president, Mrs. J. P. Esch gave a fine extemporaneous talk on her state, Ohio, and it soon became apparent that the Buckeye state had a most enthusiastic, not to say boastful champion. Ohio's soil, rivers, schools, and people, all came in for laudatory comments, in fact so much so as to challenge others to speak out lest the rest of the states in the union be out-classed by the one and only, which had been so well represented. This called for a good deal of impromptu speaking, which brought a delightful snap and zest to the meeting in conclusion, and the entire company thanked Mrs. Esch and the president, Mrs. E. J. Ranslow, for setting the ball in motion.

The slogan of the Tourist church is, "Wide-fellowship." The new pastor, Rev. Elmer Willis Serl, has awakened much interest in the services and the attendance has been large. Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. All residents and tourists on the peninsula are invited.

Miss Bell Brown, of Philadelphia, Pa., is guest at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. Messenger on the northeast corner of Earl street and North Halifax avenue, where she will spend the month. Miss Brown is much delighted with Seabreeze when the sun shines.

Mrs. Frank Meyers, of Atlanta, Ga., who regularly spends part of the winter in Seabreeze, is now in Jacksonville, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Collier, en route to Seabreeze to join a party of friends at the Dixie Lodge, for the remainder of the season.

If you see it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

CLARENDON REGISTER IS DAILY INCREASING

The hotel register at the Clarendon shows a daily increase, many of whom are here for the entire season. The fact that the big hostelry is heated with steam and affords a most comfortable place during all kinds of inclement weather, serves to keep many tourists at this popular seaside resort, who would otherwise continue their journey further south. This is also true of tourists moving north, many of whom think twice before leaving the portals of the hotel, knowing full well what kind of weather to expect further north.

Thursday's arrivals include Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Alley, New York city; Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Bender, Albany New York; Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Ullmann, Highland Park, Ill.; Louis Engelhart, Cincinnati, Ohio.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES TO BE HELD AT HOTEL SUNDAY

Religious services will be conducted in the music room of the Clarendon hotel, Sunday afternoon at 5:00 P. M., by Canon McGrath, of St. Paul's Cathedral, Cincinnati, Ohio. Services will be held every Sunday at the same time and place during the balance of the season.

MR. AND MRS. BENDER GUESTS AT CLARENDON

Matthew Bender and Mrs. Bender, of Albany, New York, are guests at the Clarendon for the balance of the season, having been delayed some time in reaching here, owing to the illness of Mr. Bender, who has been suffering from the effects of a carbuncle on the back of his neck, which has caused him no little trouble.

Matthew Bender is the senior member of the firm of Matthew Bender & Co., law book publishers of the city of Albany with headquarters at 109 State street. For years the firm was located on Broadway in the capital city of New York, and recently moved into new quarters built especially for the concern.

"This is Mr. and Mrs. Bender's fifth year at the Clarendon, they having spent one season in the old structure previous to the fire.

Matter of Protection.

AUTOS WIN BATTLE

How the Tide Was Turned on the Marne.

General Gallieni Hurls 70,000 Men by Taxicab Against German Flank and Forces Retreat to the Aisne.

By FRANKLIN P. MERRICK.
(International News Service.)

Paris.—It is not generally known that the Battle of the Marne was won by automobiles. General Gallieni had 400 taxicabs and other light motor cars at his disposal. It will be remembered that Von Kluck with the right of the German army got as far as Champiley. General Gallieni, as military governor of Paris, had a large force, probably half a million men, at his disposal and he was responsible for the defense of Paris.

Gallieni figured that he had more men than he really needed and that 70,000 of his men could be spared for work at the front.

Acting entirely upon his own responsibility, he ordered his men to crowd into the automobiles. He made each taxicab carry nine soldiers. It was a curious sight. There were two in each seat, two on the hood, one with the driver and one on each running board.

Within six hours he threw the whole 70,000 against the flank of the Germans at Meaux, about thirty-five miles from Paris. Von Kluck evidently had not reckoned with such a sortie. He was forced to stop and give battle. The French, retiring on his front, re-formed and gave battle. The result was the retreat of the Germans from Marne to the Aisne after the sanguinary battle named from the first river.

This is only one of the great exploits of the French army automobile transport service. No other nation in this war has used the motor car with the effectiveness of the French. The automobile transport service is organized as a separate branch. Working with amazing rapidity just after the beginning of the war, the French army officers drafted into this corps men who had been employed in automobile manufacture—foremen, skilled workmen, testers and drivers. The officers were drawn from the manufacturers, agents and other heads of automobile organizations. The heaviest trucks are used for ammunition carriers and lighter commercial vehicles for the food supply. General Mongin commands the whole corps.

Some noted French race drivers are now in the army service. Boillot alternates with the Marquis D'Albufera in driving General Joffre's car. Several machines are kept ready day and night for General Joffre and it is no unusual thing for him to enter one of them and drive the whole length of the battle front in the course of the night.

There are now 15,000 automobiles and 12,000 trucks in the service of the French army.

One of the automobile service corps' biggest feats was the transfer of the British army from Braisne, between Soisne and Reims, to St. Omar, a distance of 170 miles. The 200,000 men were transported to their new positions within three days.

GUNS' ROAR DRIVES MEN MAD

Soldiers Go at Each Other With Bayonets or Rush for Each Other's Throats.

Washington, D. C.—Europe's war is converting hundreds of men into raving maniacs, according to Maj. J. J. Dickinson of the state department, who recently saw fighting in the trenches near Soissons.

"They don't fire at each other," he said, "but the din of artillery directed at the covered trenches is positively maddening. Now and then I saw men jump out of the trenches and go at each other with bayonets or in a mad rush for each others' throats.

"From my position from trenches a little behind the actual firing line I saw hundreds of men brought back. They did not seem to be wounded. They were screaming, raving maniacs, driven insane by that maddening roar of artillery overhead."

KING CALLS SOLDIER COWARD

Peter of Servia Takes Gun From Timid One and Sends Him Home.

Paris.—Writing to the Echo de Paris a Frenchman tells of the visit of King Peter of Servia to the trenches. Crippled with rheumatism and gout, the king chided one, encouraged another and took the rifle of a third, saying: "You are afraid. Go to your wife and children. I will stay and defend your country. I am willing to die to save the country from the Germans and Austrians, whom I detest as a Karageorgevitch and as king."

ENEMIES IN DEATH EMBRACE

Frenchman and German Bayonet Each Other and Die With Hands Clasped.

London.—A French observer of the battlefield of the Marne tells that he saw a Frenchman and a German lying together, apparently in the act of exchanging a handshake. Coming nearer, he found that each man had bayoneted the other, and had fallen in a death embrace which mimicked the pose of greeting friends.

The Claimant

By EUNICE BLAKE

On the estate of Lucien Marivaut, in France, lived a poor man named Soubise and his wife, Marie, the couple having a little son, Francois. M. Marivaud had extensive vineyards, from the product of which he manufactured wine. Soubise had charge of the grape growing, and Marivaud not only valued his services highly, but was very fond of him. Soubise's wife died, and he soon followed her, leaving little Francois without a home.

M. Marivaud had a son, Victor, about Francois' age. When the latter was left an orphan he was taken to the chateau and became a playmate of Victor. There was a brother of Victor, Louis, much younger than either of these two boys.

When Victor was eighteen he entered the military school and became an army officer. Upon graduating he was ordered to join his regiment in Tonkin. Francois was anxious to see service and, enlisting in the same regiment, went out with Victor, who agreed to interest himself in his promotion that he might become an officer.

A year later after a fight Lieutenant Marivaud was reported missing. This meant that he had fallen into the hands of the Chinese, in which case it was quite likely that he had been murdered. When nothing was heard from him for several years he was given up by his family, and when his brother, Louis, came of age he inherited the family patrimony, his father having died without a will. M. Marivaud had purposely omitted to make one because he never ceased to hope that his son would one day turn out to be among the living.

Ten years after the departure of Victor Marivaud, when there was no member of the family living, Louis, who had for some time possessed and managed the wine business, became engaged to Hortense Villaret, the daughter of a neighbor. Mlle. Villaret belonged to an aristocratic family, but the estate had been confiscated during one of the many changes in the sovereignty of France, and she was very poor. She and Louis were much in love with each other, and her father favored the match because Louis was wealthy and could enable Hortense to return to the style of living to which the family had formerly been accustomed.

All went happily for the lovers till a few weeks before the day set for the wedding. Then one day a man appeared at the chateau claiming to be Victor Marivaud. Louis was but twelve years old when his brother left home, and, granting that this man was Victor, he would not have remembered him. There was no other person at hand who had been familiar with Victor to identify him.

But the claimant was able to tell of many incidents that had happened on the estate, which went far to prove that he was what he claimed to be. He explained his long absence in this wise: During the fight in which he was reported missing he was knocked on the head by the butt of a musket in the hands of a Chinaman and stunned. When he came to himself he remembered nothing of the past, not even his name. The dead were lying about him; the wounded had been removed. He arose and walked till he came to a city, where he eventually entered the service of a French merchant. After passing through various vicissitudes he was taken suddenly ill and was removed to a hospital. After having been delirious on returning to his former condition he had exclaimed, "You rascally Chinaman, take that for yours!" But seeing a nurse before him instead of a Chinaman he appeared much surprised. He had returned to a normal state, remembering that he was Victor Marivaud.

His appearance was a terrible blow to the lovers, for, according to the French law of inheritance, Victor Marivaud was the owner of the estate, including the wine business. He told Louis so many things that had occurred during the latter's childhood that Louis became convinced that the stranger was his brother. Nevertheless it was not to be expected that he would be pleased to see a brother of whom he had no remembrance and who would dispossess him of his property. But the severest blow was that M. Villaret immediately withdrew his consent to his daughter's marriage unless it could be proved that the claimant was an impostor.

There was an old blind woman living on the place, who, on hearing of the claimant, desired that he be brought to her. She asked him a few questions, which seemed to trouble him, though he answered them correctly. Then the old woman directed that he be uncovered to the waist. This was done, and her hand was guided to his chest. She slid her hand around to his side under his right arm, and it rested on a small lump the size of a pea.

"This is Francois Soubise," she said. "I lived with his mother when he was a little boy and often dressed and undressed him. I know him by this lump."

That ended the pretense.

Louis Marivaud after this attempt to impose on him went to Tonkin and made a search for his brother, Victor. But, although he spent much time on the matter, he failed to obtain any information whatever. Victor never returned.

SECOND CARNIVAL AT NAUTILUS TOMORROW

The second "water carnival" event will take place at the Nautilus tomorrow evening. The success and enjoyment of the water sports last Sunday evening and the attendance of over 500 spectators have established the popularity of these Sunday evening events, and the management proposes to make this a regular weekly feature.

The tub races, water pony rides and water pony games are especially enjoyable and cause the utmost merriment and enthusiasm on the part of the spectators. No better demonstration of fancy diving and swimming can be found anywhere than the exhibitions given by swimming Master McCullen.

The Central of Florida railway provides the best of car service with a twenty-minute schedule to the Nautilus and three cars at the doors at the end of the evening's events.

Following is the program for tomorrow evening:

No. 1. 10-yard dash.
No. 2. 40-yard dash.
No. 3. Tub race.
No. 4. Relay, four men, 100 yards each.
No. 5. Water pony rides (best 2 in 3).
No. 6. Exhibition of fancy diving—Swimming Master McCullen.
No. 7. 40-yard relay—(Swimming Master McCullen will cycle against two competitors.)
No. 8. Water polo (Ormond vs. Nautilus.)

SIX PROHIBITION MEETINGS HERE

A. Poling, associate to the president of the world-wide Christian Endeavor movement and citizenship superintendent for that great organization, and Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps," a book which has been translated into seventeen different languages and has a circulation of millions. Accompanying the group are Rev. Daniel V. Poling, of The Dalles, Oregon, one of the great choral leaders of the west, and William L. Patton, of Portland, Oregon, pianist.

In the second group are Dr. Ira Landrith, president of Ward-Belmont college, former moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly, and presiding officer of the international Y. M. C. A. convention; Rev. Wilbur F. Sheridan, general secretary of the Epworth Leagues of America, and Dr. Carolyn E. Geist, member of the public health committee of the American Federation of Women's clubs and a Battle Creek physician of twenty years' practice. The musical director with this group is Frederick Tuller, one of the world's foremost interpreters of religious music, while Mrs. Tuller is at the piano.

In the third group are Governor Hanly, Oliver Stewart, of Chicago, former member of the Illinois legislature, and a prohibition lecturer of note; and John B. Lewis, of Boston, former member of the Massachusetts legislature, and a retired shoe manufacturer of Boston, who has devoted many years to humanitarian work. He is treasurer of the squadron, and has personally given $10,000 toward the expense of the campaign. Mrs. Vera K. Mullis, formerly on the concert stage, is soloist with this group.

The Flying Squadron is not only unique in its plan of operation, but also in its make-up. It is an independent organization, not under the direction of any existing temperance organization, but friendly toward them all. It is working for a united fight by the temperance forces with the avowed purpose of securing the submission and adoption of the national prohibition amendment by 1920. It includes in its make-up men of all political parties and all religious faiths.

While working primarily for nation wide prohibition, the visits of the squadron have been of powerful effect in other sections of the country in local fights against the saloon evil. Starting in Illinois, the squadron has covered the far west, the middle west and the east and is now carrying its work into the principal cities of the south.

With a wide variety of speakers, every phase of the liquor question is touched on by the Flying Squadron and covered fully. It is advertised as "A Convention on Wheels," bringing to those temperance people who can not attend the great national gatherings on the subject, the fruits of experience gained there. The meetings are not only educational, but also inspirational.

NO MORE UPLIFTING INFLUENCE THAN THAT EXERTED BY MUSIC

Reese Sutorius, leader of Sutorius's Hotel Ballou band now giving public concerts in Daytona through the generosity of that public-spirited citizen, Commodore C. G. Sampson, calls attention to an editorial in the New York Evening Journal concerning the uplifting influence of good music.

The editorial in question states that the wardens of the town preliminary has brought about the reformation of more than half the convicts under his charge by having good music played for them and by teaching them to produce it themselves, and adds that it should be a part of the business of every city to provide the people with the best music without charge. The article says: "Whatever the cost of free music to a municipality, it would be well repaid in a very short time. All who have heard the noble music of the great orchestra have felt its inspiration." The editorial throughout was strong in its advocacy of better music for the public use of the cities of America to be provided by the municipalities themselves.

The new Arizona anti-alien labor law against which both Italy and Great Britain have protested has gone into effect.

SECOND CARNIVAL AT NAUTILUS TOMORROW

The second "water carnival" event will take place at the Nautilus Sunday evening. The success and enjoyment of the water sports last Sunday evening and the attendance of over 500 spectators have established the popularity of these Sunday evening events, and the management proposes to make this a regular weekly feature.

The tub races, water pony tilts and water pony games are especially enjoyable and cause the utmost merriment and enthusiasm on the part of the spectators. No better demonstration of fancy diving and swimming can be found anywhere than the exhibitions given by Swimming Master McCullen.

The Central of Florida railway promises the best of car service with a twenty-minute schedule to the Nautilus and three cars at the doors at the end of the evening's events.

Following is the program for Sunday evening:

No. 1. 30-yard dash.
No. 2. 60-yard dash.
No. 3. Tub race.
No. 4. Relay, four men, (30 yards each).
No. 5. Water pony tilt (best 2 in 3).
No. 6. Exhibition of fancy diving—Swimming Master McCullen.
No. 7. 60-yard relay—(Swimming Master McCullen will swim against two competitors.)
No. 8. Water polo (Ormond vs. Nautilus.)

A. Poling, associate to the president of the world-wide Christian Endeavor movement and citizenship superintendent for that great organization; and Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps," a book which has been translated into seventeen different languages and has a circulation of millions. Accompanying the group are Rev. Daniel V. Poling, of The Dalles, Oregon, one of the great chorus leaders of the west, and William L. Patton, of Portland, Oregon, pianist.

In the second group are Dr. Ira Landrith, president of Ward-Belmont college, former moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly, and presiding officer of the International Y. M. C. A. convention; Rev. Wilbur F. Sheridan, general secretary of the Epworth Leagues of America; and Dr. Carolyn E. Geisel, member of the public health committee of the American Federation of Womens' clubs and a Battle Creek physician of twenty years' practice. The musical director with this group is Frederick Butler, one of the world's foremost interpreters of religious music, while Mrs. Butler is at the piano.

In the third group are Governor Hanly, Oliver Stewart, of Chicago, former member of the Illinois legislature, and a prohibition lecturer of note; and John B. Lewis, of Boston, former member of the Massachusetts legislature, and a retired shoe manufacturer of Boston, who has devoted many years to humanitarian work. He is treasurer of the squadron, and has personally given $10,000 toward the expense of the campaign. Miss Vera K. Mullin, formerly on the concert stage, is soloist with this group.

The Flying Squadron is not only unique in its plan of operation, but also in its make-up. It is an independent organization, not under the direction of any existing temperance organization, but friendly toward them all. It is working for a united fight by the temperance forces with the avowed purpose of securing the submission and adoption of the national prohibition amendment by 1920. It includes in its make-up men of all political parties and all religious faiths.

While working primarily for nation wide prohibition, the visits of the squadron have been of powerful effect in other sections of the country in local fights against the saloon evil. Starting in Illinois, the squadron has covered the far west, the middle west and the east and is now carrying its work into the principal cities of the south.

With a wide variety of speakers, every phase of the liquor question is touched on by the Flying Squadron and covered fully. It is advertised as "A Convention on Wheels," bringing to those temperance people who can not attend the great national gatherings on the subject, the fruits of experience gained there. The meetings are not only educational, but also inspirational.

NO MORE UPLIFTING INFLUENCE THAN THAT EXERTED BY MUSIC

Rocco Saracina, leader of Saracina's Royal Italian band now giving public concerts in Daytona through the generosity of that public-spirited citizen, Commodore C. G. Burgoyne, calls attention to an editorial in the New York Evening Journal concerning the uplifting influence of good music.

The editorial in question states that the warden of the Iowa penitentiary has brought about the reformation of more than half the convicts under his charge by having good music played for them and by teaching them to produce it themselves, and adds that it should be a part of the business of every city to provide the people with the best music without charge. The article says: "Whatever the cost of free music to a municipality, it would be well repaid in a very short time. All who have heard the noble music of the great geniuses have felt its inspiration." The editorial throughout was strong in its advocacy of better music for the public of the cities of America to be provided by the municipalities themselves.

The new Arizona anti- alien labor law against which both Italy and Great Britain have protested has gone into effect.

Singularly Productive Tree.

Perhaps the most productive of all trees is the carnauba tree, similar to the palm which flourishes along the Rio Grande. When it is young it produces vinegar, while the roots have a taste similar to sarsaparilla. The branches give forth nuts which when roasted can be used as coffee. The tree's wood is serviceable to make musical instruments. Lastly there is a wax extracted from it that is used to make candles.

Lucky Recovery of Rings.

The wife of a British army officer in India placed a number of valuable rings on a stand in her bedroom in their bungalow. They were missed shortly after a great snake was seen gliding away to the nearby jungle. Servants went on a snake hunt, and after killing seven serpents were fortunate enough to get the one that had swallowed the rings.

Believed Fish Had a Language.

In the old Roman days the muraenas, or sea eels, were supposed to be possessed of a "language"—"low and sweet," it is denominated by one ancient writer, "and with an intonation so fascinating that few could resist its influence." The Emperor Augustus, it was contended, was the only mortal who could understand this "language."

Division of the Days.

Bessie and Bertie, at a loss for a new game to play, hit upon the idea of being "at home" and having "a day." Bessie hit upon the plan, that is, Bertie wanted to know what she meant by "at home" and "a day." "Why, don't you know?" asked Bessie, astonished. "All the stylish people have days for being at home to visitors. God's day is Sunday, and mother's is Tuesday."

Lucky Optimist.

An optimist is a man who can scent the coming harvest while the snow is on the ground; a man who can live in the sunny days of June, even while he is in the dingy days of December; a man who can believe in the best even in the arrogant and aggressive presence of the worst.—J. H. Jowett.

The modern Gasparillas annually capture the city of Tampa and for five days turn it over to unrestrained merry-making of the clean but fantastic kind so fitting in the delightful climate of Florida.

Rivalling in many respects the famous Mardi Gras of New Orleans, the Gasparilla Carnival at Tampa, Florida, is the social and amusement event of the winter season in the Southeast.

Gasparilla was a legendary pirate bold, who, according to tradition, sailed the Spanish Main with his buccaneers, retiring to secluded harbors on the Gulf Coast in the vicinity of Tampa at intervals to dispose of their loot.

A party of Joliet ladies were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Alice J. Knowlton, Wednesday afternoon in her rooms in the Ross apartments on North Ridgewood avenue, in honor of Mrs. Gifford, also of Joliet. The afternoon was spent in sewing and a dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Singularly Productive Tree.

Perhaps the most productive of all trees is the carnamba tree, similar to the palm which flourishes along the Rio Grande. When it is young it produces vinegar, while the roots have a taste similar to sarsaparilla. The branches give forth nuts which when roasted can be used as coffee. The tree's wood is serviceable to make musical instruments. Lastly there is a wax extracted from it that is used to make candles.

Lucky Recovery of Rings.

The wife of a British army officer in India placed a number of valuable rings on a stand in her bedroom in their bungalow. They were missed shortly after a great snake was seen gliding away to the near-by jungle. Servants went on a snake hunt, and after killing seven serpents were fortunate enough to get the one that had swallowed the rings.

Believed Fish Had a Language.

In the old Roman days the muraenas, or sea eels, were supposed to be possessed of a "language"—"low and sweet," it is denominated by one ancient writer, "and with an intonation so fascinating that few could resist its influence." The Emperor Augustus, it was contended, was the only mortal who could understand this "language."

Division of the Days.

Bessie and Bertie, at a loss for a new game to play, hit upon the idea of being "at home" and having "a day." Bessie hit upon the plan, that is. Bertie wanted to know what she meant by "at home" and "a day." "Why, don't you know?" asked Bessie, astonished. "All the stylish people have days for being at home to visitors. God's day is Sunday, and mother's is Tuesday."

Lucky Optimist.

An optimist is a man who can scent the coming harvest while the snow is on the ground; a man who can live in the sunny days of June, even while he is in the dingy days of December, a man who can believe in the best even in the arrogant and aggressive presence of the worst.—J. H. Jowett.

Sunday Closing

Hereafter our market will be closed on Sunday during the season, but in the summer deliveries will be made Sunday mornings to patrons having no facilities for keeping meat over night. No meat will be cut Sunday. When necessary the market will remain open until midnight Saturday.

CUBA
A Winter Paradise

The modern Gasparillas annually capture the city of Tampa and for five days turn it over to unrestrained merry-making of the clean but fantastic kind so fitting in the delightful climate of Florida.

Rivalling in many respects the famous Mardi Gras of New Orleans, the Gasparilla Carnival at Tampa, Florida, is the social and amusement event of the winter season in the Southeast.

Gasparilla was a legendary pirate bold, who, according to tradition, sailed the Spanish Main with his buccaneers, retiring to secluded harbors on the Gulf Coast in the vicinity of Tampa at intervals to dispose of their loot.

Gasparilla Carnival
Tampa, Florida
February 12, 13, 14, 15, 16

The Gasparilla Carnival Association, composed of the leading business men of Tampa, assuring you of a splendid entertainment, cordially invites you to attend.

Come and see the modern incarnation of the desperate pirate, Gasparilla, capture Tampa and turn the city over to his followers for five days.

Come see the artistic and impressive parade of welcome to the king of "Ye Mystic Krewe of Gasparilla" and his lovely queen, and their coronation.

Come see the costumed street dances, made glad by many bands; the water carnival and industrial parades; the masked balls and the fine fireworks.

Tampa's treat—all the public features of this grand event are open and free. Low railroad rates from all parts of the country—ask your ticket agent about these. Any other information regarding this celebration desired on application of

THRONGS WENT TO SEE NEPTUNE'S DAUGHTER

Literally scores and scores of people who went to the Crystal theater last night to see Annette Kellermann in "Neptune's Daughter," went away disappointed because they could not get inside to see the great picture. Really it is a great picture—the greatest of its type ever made. Many of the things Miss Kellermann does in the water are not only novel but startling and from beginning to end of the [illegible] play, thrilling scenes, spectacular and difficult aquatic feats, and [illegible] situations follow each other in rapid succession.

"Neptune's Daughter" is mighty well worth seeing, and it is safe to say that when it is presented again, this afternoon and evening, the Crystal will be filled to overflowing.

COLORED GIRL DIED FRIDAY AFTERNOON

COMPANION SERMON TO ONE OF LAST SUNDAY

At the First Baptist church tomorrow the pastor, Holmes S. Rightmire, will preach a companion sermon to the one of last Sunday under the topic, "A Communicating God." The Bible school meets at 9:45 with S. Mills as superintendent of the adult department and Mrs. Fred Stokes of the primary. The society for the boys and girls meets at 3:00 and all children between 6 and 14 years are invited to enjoy this Bible story hour under the leadership of Mrs. Rightmire.

The devotional hour of the B. Y. P. U. will be held at 6:45. The topic for the service will be, "In Contrast with Christian Countries." Miss Nita Mae McClellan will be the leader. All young people of the city are invited to be present.

In the evening the pastor will preach the fourth sermon in the series on "The Man Jesus." The phase of His character that will be considered is "His Sincerity."

BOARD TRADE LOSES THEO. HOFSTATTER

One of the matters which demanded the attention of the Daytona board of trade, at its Friday evening meeting, was the formal tender by Theodore Hofstatter of his resignation as a member of that very effective body of promoters and boosters. Mr. Hofstatter had been an active member of the board of trade, and regret was expressed that he had seen fit to unconditionally sever his relations and withdraw his influence. Inasmuch, however, as he "resigned without recourse," there was nothing for the board to do except take its medicine and "accept without recourse."

Blue Monday.

In Bavaria and some other parts of Europe the Monday before Lent was at one time known as Blue Monday. The churches were decorated with blue, and the day was kept as a holiday by classes whose ordinary avocation required them to labor on Sunday. As this led to violent disturbances the custom was legally abolished.

Americans Fond of Cocoa.

The United States consumes more than 26 per cent. of the total production of cocoa, or over 60 tons per annum. Germany consumes almost 50 tons, and France 28,044 tons each year. Great Britain uses over 25 tons, so it may be seen that this is an enormous industry, and one of the most valuable products grown.

Flowers of Music.

The graces—namely, the shake, the turn, the appoggiatura, etc.—are the flowers of music; and the clear, correct, and delicate execution of them embellishes and exalts every melody and every passage. But when they are played stiff, hard, or unintelligibly, they may rather be compared to blots of ink or spots of dirt.—Carl Czerny.

Wants to Stay There.

After a man has reached the top he begins to hope that the rungs in the ladder will all give out.—Detroit Free Press.

Only Reasonable.

A boy was observed dragging a fine looking but evidently weary dog along the street on a hot day. A kindly woman stopped the lad and offered to buy the dog for 50 cents. "Fifty cents, mother!" came the indignant answer. "I want at least a dollar more for him. Why, his old master gave me $1 to take him away."

BRAND-NEW CURE FOR THE "MORNING AFTER"

One of the Broadwayites of nocturnal habits has a new cure for the "morning after." He stays up until the early mornings, visits the all-night restaurants and partakes heartily of refreshments, both solid and liquid. Then he sleeps well into the afternoon.

"It's not often I have a headache on the 'morning after,' he said today, but when I do it always goes away when the electric lights come on. I am great for the electric lights as a tonic. A couple of days ago I had to get up at noon on account of an appointment. I had been up until after five in the morning and was 'heady.' So I tried an experiment. Instead of letting the daylight into my room I kept the shades down and lighted the electric lights. It worked fine. Under the mellowing influence of the electric lights I fooled my head ache completely and by the time I went out it was gone. Remember the recipe. It's great."

An order for $2,000,000 worth of shrapnel, to be used in the war in Europe has been rejected by the Commonwealth Steel Company, Granite City, Ill., it was learned recently, because Clarence H. Howard, president of the organization, believes warfare should not be recognized.

Mr. Howard, who lives in St. Louis, is a Christain Scientist, and is known all over the country as the "Golden Rule Man" because he tries to run his plant in accordance with the Golden Rule, by sharing profits with the employees, is stopping at the Hillsmore hotel with his wife and son, Thorne.

Although he talked freely of the trouble in Europe, he frowned at the report about the $2,000,000 shrapnel order, and then said with blazing eyes:

"Why, our company would not accept an order for $15,000,000 worth of shrapnel! Would it be a laudable thing to make these shell and then send them away so that torn might murder one another with them? No, a thousand times no!"

L. & N. PASSENGER AGENT HERE FRIDAY

H. C. Bretney, of Jacksonville, Florida passenger agent for the Louisville & Nashville railroad, was in Daytona, Friday, looking over the local field with an eye to business for his road. Mr. Bretney is among the most popular and efficient passenger agents of the many that visit the East coast, and his visits to Daytona are pleasurable events to his local contingent of friends and acquaintances. It is not unlikely, stated Mr. Bretney to a representative of the Daily News, that the L. & N. will establish an office here later in the season, the object being to secure a larger share of the tourist passenger traffic.

Blue Monday.

In Bavaria and some other parts of Europe the Monday before Lent was at one time known as Blue Monday. The churches were decorated with blue, and the day was kept as a holiday by classes whose ordinary avocation required them to labor on Sunday. As this led to violent disturbances the custom was legally abolished.

Americans Fond of Cocoa.

The United States consumes more than 26 per cent. of the total production of cocoa, or over 60 tons per annum. Germany consumes almost 50 tons, and France 28,044 tons each year. Great Britain uses over 25 tons, so it may be seen that this is an enormous industry, and one of the most valuable products grown.

Flowers of Music.

The graces—namely, the shake, the turn, the appogiatura, etc.—are the flowers of music; and the clear, correct, and delicate execution of them embellishes and exalts every melody and every passage. But when they are played stiff, hard, or unintelligibly, they may rather be compared to blots of ink or spots of dirt.—Carl Czerny.

Only Reasonable.

A boy was observed dragging a fine looking but evidently weary dog along the street on a hot day. A kindly woman stopped the lad and offered to buy the dog for 50 cents. "Fifty cents, nothin!" came the indignant answer. "I want at least a dollar more for him. Why, his old master gave me $1 to take him away."

GUEST NIGHT AT SANS SOUCI CLUB

A very delightful program and entertainment was given Thursday evening at the well appointed home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holmes on Halifax avenue, when at the annual open meeting the husbands and friends of club members were invited to be present.

Japanese decorations were used very effectively in the large reception room at the Holmes residence. The guests were met at the door and ushered in by two dainty little maidens, clad in Japanese robes. They were Miss Catherine Waterson and Adele Towne. The Wilson orchestra opened the program and Mr. Waterson sang two vocal solos. Mr. Holmes then entertained the company for sometime with fine stereopticon views of tea and rice growing in Japan; choice bits of scenery from this wonderful island was also thrown upon the canvas. Most of the pictures exhibited were photographs taken by Mr. and Mrs. Holmes in their travels through Japan.

Following the stereopticon views, Mrs. Smith Young gave a highly interesting talk on rice cultivation in Japan. Mrs. Mitchell drew a graphic pen-picture of Tokio. Both of these talks were greatly enjoyed by members and visitors, and in fact the entire program was a beautiful success.

At the close of the program appropriate refreshments, such as rice cakes, chop suey and tea were served in Japan style to the delectation of all present.

After a short intermission for social visiting, the company dispersed in the firm conviction that Mr. and Mrs. Holmes could not be excelled as genial host and hostess, and that the annual open meeting was an event to which club members may look forward with much pleasure each year.

SEABREEZE AND DAYTONA BEACH

Grady Coleman and his father arrived here Monday, making the trip from Moultrie, Ga., in their Ford car, and are spending the week with G. C. Odum and other relatives. They will leave next week for the interior on a camping trip, and hope to enjoy some good shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Olds, of Michigan, have recently located in an apartment at the winter home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wells, on the corner of Earl street and Peninsula drive. Mr. and Mrs. Olds were here two years ago and spent the winter at the home of C. B. Poor.

TOURISTS' BIBLE CLASS. SEABREEZE AVE. CHURCH

This class meets at 10 a. m. every Sunday in the East Annex of the church.

After the regular lesson tomorrow, the class will be addressed by Dr. Charles Frederick Goss, of Cincinnati.

All are cordially invited to come.

Miss Ella Warren, of Chicago, Ill., has taken rooms at the Poor home. Miss Warren is greatly interested in birds and has discovered a new species since her arrival.

LADIES' AID OF TOURIST CHURCH MET AT THE GENEVA

Inspite of the inclement afternoon, the ladies' aid meeting of the Tourist church was well attended and proved unusually pleasant for the members and visitors present. At a short business session it was decided to have the Tourist church wired and fixtures installed for electric lighting. A very generous donation of $10 was made by a guest of the Geneva toward the work. The musical program included two vocal solos by Miss Peirson: "Four Leaf Clover" and "The Little Dutch Garden." Several instrumental selections by Mrs. Abell, winter resident of North Halifax avenue, and vocal selections by noted singers on the new Victrola, recently purchased by Mrs. Stengle for the enjoyment of the guests of the Geneva, all of which was greatly enjoyed by the company. At the invitation of the president, Mrs. J. P. Esch gave a fine extemporaneous talk on her state, Ohio, and it soon became apparent that the Buckeye state had a most enthusiastic, not to say boastful champion. Ohio's soil, rivers, schools, and people, all came in for laudatory comments, in fact so much so as to challenge others to speak out lest the rest of the states in the union be out-classed by the one and only, which had been so well represented. This called for a good deal of impromptu speaking, which brought a delightful snap and zest to the meeting in conclusion, and the entire company thanked Mrs. Esch and the president, Mrs. F. J. Rinslow, for setting the ball in motion.

The slogan of the Tourist church is, "Wide-fellowship." The new pastor, Rev. Elmer Willis Serl, has awakened much interest in the services and the attendance has been large. Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. All residents and tourists on the peninsula are invited.

Miss Bell Brown, of Philadelphia, Pa., is guest at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. Messenger on the northeast corner of Earl street and North Halifax avenue, where she will spend the month. Miss Brown is much delighted with Seabreeze when the sun shines.

Mrs. Frank Meyers, of Atlanta, Ga., who regularly spends part of the winter in Seabreeze, is now in Jacksonville, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Colliet, en route to Seabreeze to join a party of friends at the Dixie Lodge, for the remainder of the season.

If you see it in the Daily News it is pretty apt to be just that way.

CLARENDON REGISTER IS DAILY INCREASING

The hotel register at the Clarendon shows a daily increase, many of whom are here for the entire season. The fact that the big hostelry is heated with steam and affords a most comfortable place during all kinds of inclement weather, serves to keep many tourists at this popular seaside resort, who would otherwise continue their journey further south. This is also true of tourists moving north, many of whom think twice before leaving the portals of the hotel, knowing full well what kind of weather to expect further north.

Thursday's arrivals include Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Alley, New York city; Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Bender, Albany New York; Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Ullmann, Highland Park, Ill.; Louis Engelhart, Cincinnati, Ohio.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES TO BE HELD AT HOTEL SUNDAY

Religious services will be conducted in the music room of the Clarendon hotel, Sunday afternoon at 5:00 P. M., by Canon McGrath, of St. Paul's Cathedral, Cincinnati, Ohio. Services will be held every Sunday at the same time and place during the balance of the season.

MR. AND MRS. BENDER GUESTS AT CLARENDON

Matthew Bender and Mrs. Bender, of Albany, New York, are guests at the Clarendon for the balance of the season, having been delayed some time in reaching here, owing to the illness of Mr. Bender, who has been suffering from the effects of a carbuncle on the back of his neck, which has caused him no little trouble.

Matthew Bender is the senior member of the firm of Matthew Bender & Co., law book publishers of the city of Albany with headquarters at 109 State street. For years the firm was located on Broadway in the capital city of New York, and recently moved into new quarters built especially for the concern.

This is Mr. and Mrs. Bender's fifth year at the Clarendon, they having spent one season in the old structure previous to the fire.

She Couldn't Understand.

Sadie had accompanied her mother to a missionary meeting. As usual, the afternoon opened with prayer, in which several members of the society took part. "Mother," whispered Sadie, "what are all those ladies afraid of in the daytime?"

Matter of Protection.

A man who not only has no automobile, but who cannot be persuaded to so much as enter one, has been going around with a pair of motor goggles. Some one inquired why he wore them, seeing that he had no car. "No," he said grimly; "but my wife has hatpins!"

NELLIE BLY IN HUNGARIAN CAPITAL

(The following dispatch was sent while Miss Nellie Bly, special correspondent in Austria for the International News Service, was in the city of Budapest, Hungary, and is a continuation of her story of her experiences there.)

BUDAPEST, Nov. 10.—I turned at the sound of my name to find Miholy Gellert, with outstretched hand and smile of welcome. Every one who has frequented Haan's restaurant and the St. Regis will recall him. He is Mr Haan's nephew. He invented the "Eggs a la Nellie Bly," which still appear on his menu cards. He is owner of this hotel. In comfort and design it equals any in New York. It is just like being in New York to be here.

All his waiters and help speak English. His bar produces real American cocktails, an almost unknown accomplishment in Europe.

I had a hot bath in the daintiest tiled bathroom, a jim-dandy dinner and then went to a coffee house where we all lined up to meet our commander.

We were invited to be the guests of a Kino show, where we saw "Billy" Anderson, as "Broncho Bill," done in Hungarian and converted from the gay and lively life of a bandit by a Christmas dinner with THE GIRL. I do hope the turkey was young and that "Broncho Bill" did not thereafter find life prosy. Of course, there were war pictures, but they were tame after the realities I have seen.

Met "Queen of the Kinos."

From here we were taken to the Volks theater, where we saw "The Queen of the Kinos." Between acts the amiable manager took us back and introduced us to his stars. They were extremely good-looking. One girl insisted on having everybody's autograph. Szomory —— kissed the prettiest ones on the forehead as he introduced each one to me as his "dearest sweetheart." I forgot to count them. At any rate, they did not understand English. Otherwise jealousy might jeopardize his next production.

Then they took us to supper. In addition, I had a beautiful bunch of flowers. The gipsy band played Szomory's music and "Yankee Doodle." I had to sit at the head of the table. When supper was over we all sat there. I thought the president of the Press club would give the signal to go.

Finally Mr. Schriner learned that etiquette required all to sit still until I gave the signal to go. He whispered this horrifying information to me after I had been wondering for an hour what we were all waiting for.

Dr. MacDonald had just been showing me his new watch. It is gunmetal, gold-trimmed. It is six inches in diameter.

I rose to my feet and held up the baby-clock. They all could see that it was 1 a. m. In taxis we drove to the Winter Garden. The show keeps up until 4 a. m. It was a good show, too. The twenty-seventh number was on when we got in. It was a long-legged girl in white and four automatic young men in black, who sang and danced to a tuneful ditty, during which the stage was darkened and they showed their faces with pocket electric lamps. Many of our members who had been missing were surprised to be found in the curtained boxes.

Then Turkey Trotting.

At 4 we left for another resort, where they are presumed to do turkey trotting in the cleared space on the floor, while the drinkers from the boxes enjoy the sight. I was no longer surprised at the prejudice against the tango.

From here we went to Bojoro, where all-nighters go for soup before going home. It was filled with people and smoke.

The Astoria's splendid beds never held a more grateful sleeper. It was 6 a. m.

I did not want to get up even at noon, but the mayor was to receive us at 2. Mr. Schriner, Von Leidenfrost and I walked to the city hall. We were the first to arrive. An attendant ushered us into a room filled with fine furniture and splendid pictures. A map on the table showed by small flags the position of the Austrian and Russian forces. One on the wall showed the German and French.

THE RUGER PLACE IMPROVEMENTS NEAR COMPLETION

STREETS BEING PAVED AND SIDEWALKS BUILT. ORNAMENTAL COLUMNS FINISHED ON RUGER PLACE IN BOSTWICK PARK.

The improvements are nearing completion on Rugar Place, which is one of the best streets in Bostwick Park, the new residential suburb which was opened this week.

Five-foot concrete sidewalks are being built on both sides of the streets and the street is being made a boulevard with palm trees, eucalyptus and ornamental shrubs in the center and hard-surfaced with shell on both sides. Ornamental columns have been built at the entrances of the street and electric lights will be installed on top.

The lots with eastern exposures on this street are some of the best homesites to be found in Florida, lying high on a bluff they command a view of the Atlantic ocean. The southeast corner lot on Ruger Place was recently purchased by F. J. Niver, of the Merchants State bank.

The lots on Ruger Place are restricted to homes which will cost at least $2,500, and there is a uniform building line of 30 feet back from the front line of the lot.

More than $30,000 worth of building lots have already been sold in Bostwick Park, and as the development is finished and dwellings are built the values will increase.

Two modern homes are now being built, a coquina mansion on the ocean front and the palatial winter home of E. L. King on the river front, which will be the most costly home in Daytona when complete. Attorney Edward Oates will commence the construction of a modern home on Silver Beach avenue in the near future; also several of the recent purchasers have plans for homes to be built in the near future.

Building prizes amounting to $2,500, in gold will be given away to first builders, and it is predicted that there will be more building activity in Bostwick Park than any new subdivision ever opened in Florida.

The location of Bostwick Park is ideal, being just over the South bridge, only a few moments from the center of the business section of Daytona, corner of Silver Beach avenue and Peninsula Drive, and extending to the Atlantic ocean. Salesmen on the grounds every afternoon, or call at our office for plats and circulars. Automobiles at your service to inspect this property. TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY COBURN'S MINSTRELS

One of the pleasing features of Coburn's Greater Minstrels at the New Daytona next Tuesday and Wednesday, is the male quartette composed of Lester Lucas, basso, Jos. Maguire, baritone, Justin McCarthy, lead tenor and yodler, and William Church, lyric robust tenor, and the possessor of one of the most powerful top tenors in minstrelsy.

Mr. Church's range is phenomenal, and his rendition of sentimental, comedy or classical numbers individualize him as one of the singing features of the company. Of pleasing appearance and address Mr. Church is as big favorite with the members of the company as with those music loving patrons who instantly respond to his talent. Mr. Lucas's personality and splendid bass voice is too well known to require comment. This season as interlocuter with the company his many friends will have an opportunity of recognizing an added ability in this versatile performer entirely unexpected in connection with his musical work.

Justin McCarthy, the celtic tenor, is also well known in minstrelsy. His beautiful tenor selections and Tryolean yodles being well known to patrons of this company. Jos. Maguire's baritone, although a new man with this company, immediately enrolls him a favorite. Every number this season is the latest and best from the song writers feature selections. The quartette itself is the best Manager Coburn has ever had. Don't miss them next Tuesday and Wednesday, if you love good singing. Seats on sale at Hankins' now.

BAD-ROAD COMPLAINTS BEDEVIL THE BOARD

ANOTHER GROWL ABOUT ROUGH, MUDDY STRETCH OF HIGHWAY SOUTH OF NEW SMYRNA. SITUATION CLEARING.

The last weekly meeting of the Daytona board of trade was principally a discussion of roads—good, bad and indifferent—and consideration of complaints about some of the bad places in or on Volusia county highways.

"Our attention has been repeatedly called to the very bad condition of the stretch of two miles of road in Volusia county beginning about 12 miles south of New Smyrna and extending to the Brevard county line. It is reported to be practically impassable, and is said to be the very worst piece of road between Quebec and Miami," wrote the Florida State Good Roads association, from Jacksonville. This was a matter that had previously been given attention by the board of trade, with the result that assurances were received that the bad piece of road near New Smyrna would be repaired immediately.

Secretary Deacon has taken pains to inform the secretary of the Florida Good Roads association, J. P. Clarkson, and others who have complained about Volusia's roads, that the board of trade is bending its every energy to assist in eliminating the causes of dissatisfaction. In this connection, it may be stated that excellent work is being done—work that will redound to the profit and enhanced reputation of Daytona and Volusia county.

The secretary was requested to write the Port Orange town council regarding the miserable condition of the John Anderson highway through that village. It is understood that this matter has lately been given some attention by the Port Orange authorities, but nothing so far seems to have been done toward repairing the road.

T. F. Williams went up to the St. Johns line, today, to meet and confer with one of that county's commissioners, I. I. Moody, with reference to dangerous mudholes that have for some time menaced travelers on a portion of the Anderson highway through the southern part of St. Johns.

UNUSUALLY SAD CASE OF POVERTY REPORTED

UNFORTUNATE NEW JERSEY WOMAN, UNABLE TO WORK, IS SUFFERING FOR LACK OF LIFE'S NECESSITIES.

One of the worst cases of real poverty that has come to the attention of the residents of the peninsula, is that of a woman by the name of Roxburg, who came to Seabreeze during the holidays. She was ill at the time of her arrival, and had but a few dollars with which to support herself and one child, a girl of six. The little money which she had has gradually dwindled away until within the past few days she and her child have been suffering the pangs of starvation.

For some time the unfortunate woman's condition has been known to certain Seabreeze residents, who have carried eatables to her and her child. At first she lived in a garage, but later was told to move into a vacant house on Peninsula drive, owned by Thomas F. Cordis, where she is at the present time. The house was unfurnished, and all the woman has with which to keep house is a bed, chair, small table and lamp, and these have been carried to her by people in the neighborhood. One person in particular, who went to the woman's asistance yesterday, as soon as she learned of Mrs. Roxburg's distress, told a representative of the Daily News that it was the worst case of poverty she had ever known. She said the woman must have help at once or die of starvation.

Arrangements have been made for persons desiring to lend a helping hand, to leave food stuffs, or any other assistance, at the store of J. L. Wetherby, Daytona Beach, and the same will be promptly conveyed to Mrs. Roxburg.

Mrs. Roxburg's story is a particularly sad one. She comes from Pleasantville, N. J., where, until the death of her husband, about a year ago, she and her family enjoyed all the comforts of life. He was a locomotive engineer and received ample salary to insure a comfortable living, but there was not much left to lay aside for a rainy day. Quite a substantial amount of insurance money was paid over to the widow after her husband's death, but the mother's health began to fail through her efforts to support the children, three in number, and after a long illness in the hospital, the physician in charge advised her to take what little money she had left and go to Seabreeze, Florida. The nature fo the woman's disease was diagnosed diabetes, and the climate here has been the means of strengthening her condition materially. In order to leave Pleasantville, having only money sufficent for one fare, Mrs. Roxburg was forced to place her two boys in a charitable institution. It is her one great desire now to be able to send for the boys, whom she says, are ten and twelve years old, and sufficiently able to help her maintain the family, if she could but secure work so as to send money home for their transportation here.

Unfreezable.

"Can any one name a liquid that doesn't freeze?" asked the teacher. There was a moment's silence, says the Berliner Illustrirte Zeitung. Then a voice in the rear of the room answered, eagerly, "Please, teacher, hot water!"

Not to Be Thought Of.

THE WEATHER.

The forecast for Florida is as follows: Fair in the center and in the south, and rain in the northwest tonight and Sunday, and in the northeast tonight or Sunday. Warmer Saturday in the Daytona section. Moderate northeast and east winds.

Gov. Whitman of New York declares that he will investigate the reports that there is wholesale graft in many of the departments of the Empire State. It is predicted that there will be many resignations of heads of departments. Some, it is alleged, argue that it is better to resign than to be forced to testify in graft investigations.

Blue of the Sky.

Oxygen is not colorless, but of a pretty blue color, even in a layer of slight thickness. Liquid air has a bluish tint increasing in depth with the proportion of oxygen. While it is not certain that a body has the same color in a solid as in the gaseous state, it is nevertheless true that this at once suggests an explanation of the phenomenon of the blue color of the sky.—Scientific American.

A bird's nest caused a fire at Folkestone, Kent, England, not long since. The nest, built just below a wooden window-sill at a boarding house on the water front, was ignited by sparks from a chimney, and the window-sill caught fire. The fire was subdued before any extensive damage was done.
